

CALVIN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

BARNABAS FOUNDATION
STEWARDSHIP AWARD
APPLICATION

ELIGIBILITY

1. Must be enrolled fulltime in a Master of Divinity, Master of Arts or Master of Theological Studies program.
2. Applicants will be students whose expressed desire is to complete a 10 part small group Crown Ministries stewardship program, to establish a formal personal budget, and to participate in a mentoring program. The spouse of the married applicant will also express this desire.
3. Recipients are eligible to apply for a subsequent year's award that builds on the first year by applying learning in one of the following ways: co-leading a Crown Ministries small group, developing and preaching a 3 part (or more) stewardship sermon series, developing and teaching an 8 part (or more) stewardship class (i.e. adult education), or other purposes as approved by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs.
4. Applicants may apply for any year while attending seminary – including the internship year – in which the applicant remains a full-time student.
